

THE GREAT INNS
OF BRITAIN

THE GREAT INNS OF BRITAIN

Find your perfect inn...

Scotland: pages 3-4

- The Selkirk Arms, Dumfries & Galloway

Northern England: pages 5-16

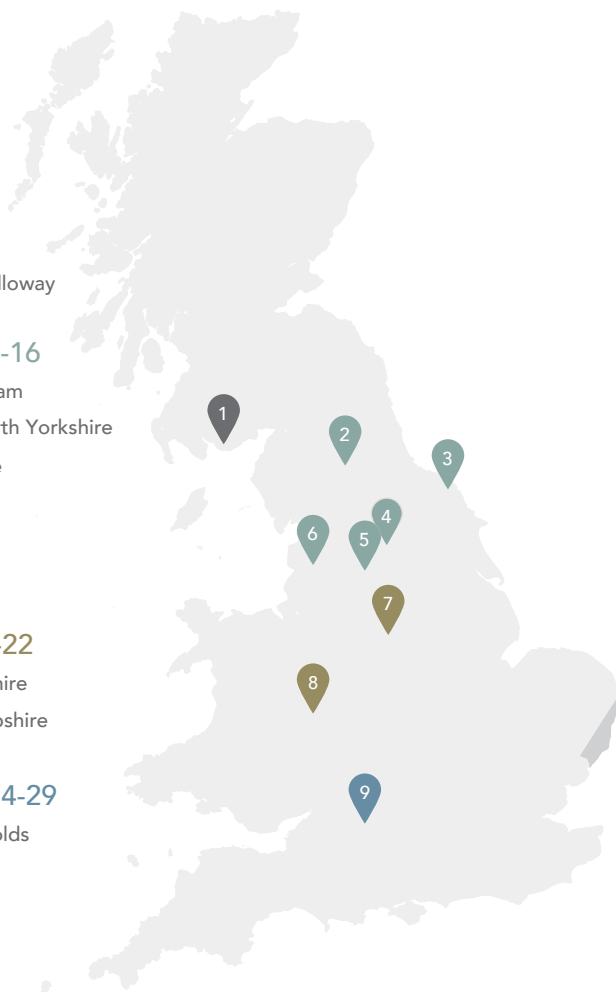

- The Rose & Crown, County Durham
- The White Horse and Griffin, North Yorkshire
- The Boar's Head, North Yorkshire
- Shibden Mill Inn, West Yorkshire
- The Inn at Whitewell, Lancashire

Central England: pages 19-22

- The Peacock at Rowsley, Derbyshire
- The Hundred House Hotel, Shropshire

Southern England: pages 24-29

- The King's Head Inn, The Cotswolds

WELCOME TO THE GREAT INNS OF BRITAIN

A unique collection of independent historic inns all sharing a passion for traditional hospitality, great service, fine food and wine.

Great Inns are stylish, full of character and can be found in some of Britain's most stunning coast and countryside locations.

Great Inns are special places - we hope we can welcome you soon.

greatinns.co.uk

1

High Street, Kirkcudbright, Dumfries & Galloway, DG6 4JG

THE SELKIRK ARMS

Scotland

Nestled between the rugged coastline and dramatic heather-clad hills, The Selkirk Arms is a fantastic base from which to explore Scotland's beautiful south-west coast.

Dating back to 1777, this traditional townhouse hotel is set on Kirkcudbright's High Street, close to the town's vibrant working harbour.

The Selkirk Arms' sixteen luxurious individually styled bedrooms complement the historic character and charm of the property, contributing to its reputation for outstanding hospitality and as a place to relax and unwind.

With menus that champion fresh and locally sourced ingredients, diners can choose from the relaxed and informal atmosphere of The Bistro or the more formal experience of the Artistas Restaurant.

16

greatinns.co.uk

4

2

Romaldkirk, Barnard Castle, County Durham, DL12 9EB

THE ROSE & CROWN

Northern England

This 18th century inn stands on the green of a picturesque Dales village amidst the stunning open countryside of rural Teesdale, within the North Pennines Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Step inside to find fabulous period features with furnishings and décor that reflect the heritage of the building combined with splashes of luxury. The heart of the inn is the charming bar where you will find both residents and locals eating, drinking and relaxing by the open fire with dogs under the tables watching on hopefully!

The impressive menu showcases the best of local produce and ingredients with excellent provenance. Eat in the bar or the delightful Oak Panelled Room with the menus offering both fine dining and more hearty dishes.

14

greatinns.co.uk

6

3

87 Church Street, Whitby, North Yorkshire, YO22 4BH

THE WHITE HORSE AND GRIFFIN

Northern England

Situated in the heart of Whitby's old town, The White Horse and Griffin is one of the most iconic and charismatic properties on the east side of Whitby.

A stone's throw from the foot of the famous 199 Abbey Steps, the 17th century coaching inn is steeped in history and has ten individually furnished bedrooms.

The inn has a reputation for great food served in a relaxed and unfussy style, using the finest locally sourced ingredients. With a strong emphasis on fresh seafood, the restaurant also serves classic British dishes and boasts a well-stocked wine cellar.

The private dining room is one of Whitby's best kept secrets and is the perfect spot for hosting special occasions. With luxurious accommodation available for up to twenty-nine guests, it is possible to hire the entire hotel and a delightful three bed cottage, located close-by.

4

Ripley, Near Harrogate, North Yorkshire, HG3 3AY

THE BOAR'S HEAD

Northern England

Ripley's historic cobbled market square is overlooked by Ripley Castle, local shops, an ancient church, the village stocks, and The Boar's Head - a old coaching Inn which offers twenty-four very comfortable bedrooms and a warm Yorkshire welcome.

The kitchen produces delicious meals using vegetables from the Castle's Victorian walled gardens and other locally sourced ingredients: you can dine in the dining room or bar - or al fresco on the front cobbles watching the world go by.

Residents can enjoy access to the Castle Gardens, Deer Park and Woodland during their visit. If you love gin, Harrogate Tipple's distillery is right next door. Shop in Harrogate, walk the Roman walls of York, enjoy the tranquility of Fountains Abbey or immerse yourselves in the Yorkshire Dales before returning for a splendid meal before bed.

5

Shibden Mill Fold, Shibden, Halifax, West Yorkshire, HX3 7UL

SHIBDEN MILL INN

Northern England

Beautifully located in the fold of the picturesque Shibden Valley, beside Red Beck, the 17th century Shibden Mill Inn is steeped in history.

The individually styled bedrooms are luxurious and supremely comfortable and the Anne Lister Suite is a truly indulgent haven.

With 2 AA Rosettes, the inn was voted Yorkshire's Favourite Pub for a second time in 2018. Enjoy a drink, lunch or dinner in the cosy bar, or choose the oak beamed Mill Room or Wine Loft for private dining or a family celebration.

The lovely gardens overlook Red Beck and are the perfect spot for summer drinks or meals.

* Dog friendly (excludes the restaurant and bedrooms)

11

*

greatinns.co.uk

12

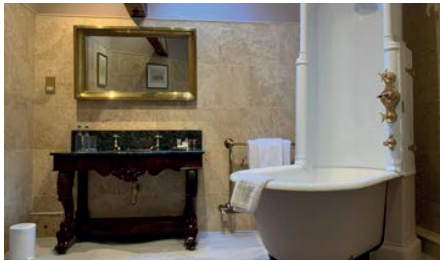

6

Clitheroe, Forest of Bowland, Lancashire, BB7 3AT

THE INN AT WHITEWELL

Northern England

The Inn at Whitewell stands on the banks of the River Hodder and is packed with character.

The twenty-five en-suite bedrooms have been individually designed with antique furnishings, paintings and prints. Many of the rooms also have open peat fires with some overlooking the river and surrounding countryside.

Wholesome delicious menus bursting with local and seasonal produce including game are served in the bar and dining room, complemented perfectly by an extensive array of wines, local cask ales, organic ciders and beers.

Guests can explore the surrounding countryside on foot, bike or horseback and are welcome to fish for salmon, trout and grayling on the Inn's seven-mile stretch of the river.

EXPLORE THE GREAT OUTDOORS

Great Inns are perfect places from which to explore the Great British countryside or stunning spots on the coast.

You may just want to take a gentle stroll to discover what's on the doorstep; but if you're keen to cover rather more ground, whether on foot, bike or horseback, then the hills, moors and valleys that surround many of the inns make the perfect place to start - and finish - your adventure.

You'll find the Inn Keepers full of advice on the best routes for hiking and biking and, if you're feeling very brave, you could even visit several of the inns on a Great Inns cycle tour!

The Great Inns also boast some excellent spots for private fishing and shooting, just a stone's throw away from their front doors. Many of the inns also warmly welcome visits by dogs, so your four-legged friends needn't be left at home.

At greatinns.co.uk you'll find lots of ideas for a great British outdoors break, handy guides for your stay at each of our inns, plus all the dog-friendly details that you need to plan your stay.

7

Rowsley, Matlock, Derbyshire, DE4 2EB

THE PEACOCK AT ROWSLEY

Central England

The Peacock at Rowsley is a 4 AA hotel, part of the historic Haddon Estate and perfectly placed in the centre of the Peak District, only a stone's throw from Chatsworth House.

Guests can choose from fifteen comfortable yet stylish en-suite bedrooms including a superbly appointed suite with its beamed bedroom and a separate sitting room.

The 3AA Rosette restaurant offers fine dining using excellent, seasonal ingredients, complemented by a wide range of wines, hand-pulled local ales and pre and post-dinner drinks to enjoy in the bar, including an inviting choice of cocktails.

8

Norton (nr Ironbridge Gorge), Telford, Shropshire, TF11 9EE

THE HUNDRED HOUSE

Central England

A warm welcome always awaits at The Hundred House, a charming, family-run country inn with ten extravagant en-suite rooms, many with fabulous four-poster beds, chandeliers and even a swing hanging from the oak beams in 7 of the 10 rooms!

Guests can escape and unwind in the beautiful enchanted garden and working herb and kitchen garden, where many varieties of herbs, vegetables and fruit are grown. Winning many awards over the years, such as Best Restaurant in Shropshire, Best Restaurant in Telford, Britain's Best kept Secret Garden, to name a few! Their menu showcases the finest local produce and an abundance of home-grown ingredients.

The Hundred House is situated in the heart of Shropshire's rolling countryside, close to the beautiful Severn Valley, and is just ten minutes from the picturesque World Heritage Site of Ironbridge with its many museums.

CELEBRATING GREAT BRITISH FOOD

From field to fork, all of the Great Inns take pride in creating menus using quality ingredients from specialist suppliers, combined with seasonal produce and locally sourced food.

Your taste buds are sure to be tickled - whether you're tucking into freshly caught seafood at one of the coastal inns, indulging in a quintessentially British afternoon tea or enjoying the taste sensations of freshly picked herbs and vegetables from the inns' very own gardens.

Many of the Great Inns host 'foodie' events which celebrate the seasons, their trusted suppliers, new menus or favourite wines. There are opportunities to 'meet the producers', sample seasonal menus and wine tastings, or dip into dining experiences to discover fine food and wines from around the world.

With each of the inns' chefs also championing their own local and seasonal specialities, you'll be spoilt for choice deciding where to start on your very own Great Inns 'Great British Food Trail'.

Visit greatinns.co.uk for details of foodie events and information about local food and drink trails. You can also 'meet the chefs' and find recipes from their kitchens to try at home.

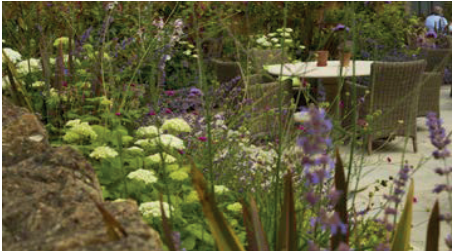

The Green, Bledington, Oxfordshire, OX7 6XQ

THE KING'S HEAD INN

Southern England

Winners of the Good Pub Guide 'Pub of the Year 2018', 'Inn of the Year 2020', and 'Inn of the Year 2021' this idyllic 16th century Cotswolds pub is gloriously situated on the picturesque village green in Bledington.

A friendly bar, atmospheric interior, super wines, real ales, delicious seasonal food and twelve lovely bedrooms make this the perfect place to relax and explore the beautiful surroundings of the Cotswolds.

Open fires welcome guests in the winter, while in the spring and summer, the patio overlooking the village green is an idyllic spot for al fresco dining.

* Dog friendly (excludes the restaurant and bedrooms)

A close-up photograph of two black dogs, likely Labrador Retrievers, looking upwards with anticipation. They are positioned in front of a fireplace with a warm fire burning in the background. The lighting is soft and focused on the dogs' faces.

DOG FRIENDLY INNS

Located in stunning locations and renowned for their warm hospitality, rest assured that your faithful four-legged friend will enjoy The Great Inns of Britain as much as you do.

Well behaved dogs can join their owners in many of the inns' restaurants, bars and some bedrooms and can expect to be spoiled with special treats, toys and miles of walks on the doorstep.

Visit greatinns.co.uk to find out how to make the most of your furry companion's stay.

GIVE A GREAT INNS GIFT VOUCHER

Whether it's for a special treat, a celebration or a way to say thank you, a Great Inns Gift Voucher makes a wonderful present.

Available for any amount from £50 upwards and presented in a stylish folder, or as an e-voucher, our Gift Vouchers are the perfect way to treat someone special to a stay or a meal at their choice of The Great Inns of Britain.

To purchase a voucher, call 01423 770152 or visit greatinns.co.uk/gift-vouchers

Ireland's Blue Book is a collection of Irish country house hotels, manor houses, castles and restaurants. Located throughout the island of Ireland these charming and stylish hideaways are perfect for your holiday in Ireland.

For your free copy of the Ireland's Blue Book guide, please email your postal address to mail@irelandsbluebook.com
www.irelandsbluebook.com / T +353 1 676 9914

The Estate Office, Ripley Castle,
Ripley, Near Harrogate, HG3 3AY

T: 01423 770 152

E: enquiries@greatinns.co.uk

 TheGreatInns  TheGreatInns

 @great.inns